- Itinerary

Day 1:

Kenya's capital is where your adventure begins. A short transfer from Nairobi's airport is all that separates you from a brief stay at the Emakoko Lodge, which is an enticing alternative to negotiating the hustle and bustle of the city. The Emakoko Lodge will provide an introduction to Kenya's bounty of wildlife.

Day 2:

The following day you will be transferred to Wilson Airport. A flight and 4x4 transfer will take you to the prestigious Ol Donyo Lodge in Tsavo, Kenya. With three days in this awe-inspiring part of the world, your time will spend on game drives or you can abandon all barriers between you and the wilderness by setting off on foot guided by an experienced tracker. Yet another alternative is to climb on one of the lodge's well-trained horses and take a ride into magnificent surrounds. Regardless of what you choose, one thing is assured: Mount Kilimanjaro will be your constant companion.

Day 5:

From one memorable experience to another... A transfer followed by a flight will carry you to your second property from the renowned Great Plains' portfolio: Mara Plains Camp on the northern border of the Maasai Mara Game Reserve. Here you will get to truly experience Kenya's incomparable natural wealth as the camp places wildlife and conservation at the epicenter of the experience, allowing guests to avoid the crowds associated with other parts of the reserve if they so desire.

Day 8:

The Emakoko Lodge will be your residence for another night before you jet off to Zambia to discover the Smoke that Thunders...

Day 9:

No doubt it will be with a heavy heart that you leave Kenya but we've got the perfect cure for your separation anxiety: the mighty Victoria Falls.

Arriving in Livingstone, Zambia, you will be warmly welcomed by some of our favorite people: the staff of Royal Chundu. Resting on the banks of the Zambezi River, the calm before the Smoke that Thunders, Royal Chundu bares the advantage of being close to both the wildlife-prolific Chobe and the Victoria Falls.

Day 13:

Even the best holidays eventually draw to a close. Yours will definitely end on a highlight because few sights compare to the majestic Victoria Falls. Once that vision is etched in your memory and heart, you will be transferred back to Livingstone to start your journey home.

All accommodation is fully inclusive throughout the tour.
