- Day Six
- We'll be heading east today, towards Opuwo and, finally, Ovivero Dam. En route you'll encounter more plains-game as well as some Ovahimba herdsman with their flock on the move in search of better grazing.
- Day Seven
- It's time to visit the majestic Epupa Falls on the mighty Kunene River. Soak up the brilliance of this lush area on an adventurous walk along the falls before heading to the upper rapids for an enjoyable swim. You will stay on the banks of the Kunene River.
- Day Eight
- Today you will further explore the area with a drive along the river bank. Later visit a Ovahimba settlement to learn more about their ancient customs and fascinating way of life. Return to the camp on the banks of the Kunene River for your overnight.

Namibia Mobile Camp

Discover Namibia's remote north-west with an exciting mobile camping experience. Guided by experienced and knowledgeable guides, this adventure will let you discover a desolate land of compelling beauty, abundant sunshine, wide horizons and endless stretches of golden sand with seas of red dunes. Remote campsites are set up along the route where you'll stay in comfortable tents with private bathroom facilities. After an adventurous day of exploration, you can relax around the campfire with a drink in hand as your evening meal is prepared on open fire. The ultimate safari experiences!

- Day Nine
- You'll have an early start to the day. We head for HOBATERE LODGE on the western border of Etosha National Park. The lodge is situated in a concession area of 8,808 ha and is home to a variety of wildlife including elephant, lion, leopard, cheetah and giraffe. You will enjoy exciting game drives and interesting nature walks all lead by knowledgeable guides.

Hobatere Lodge

Situated in a concession area west of Etosha is Hobatere Lodge, a conservancy lodge that allows for an exclusive and memorable wildlife experience amongst free-roaming wildlife—a veritable hotspot for photography and wildlife enthusiasts. When staying here, guests can enjoy warm and personalized service, great food, and chalets that beckon from the middle of the wild. Relax by the pool on a sun lounger under Namibian skies but keep your eyes peeled on the waterhole from the lodge's verandah. Enjoy nature walks and early morning and night drives accompanied by knowledgeable rangers, and look out for the animals of the night, such as aardvark, Cape fox, bat-eared fox, aardwolf and genet.

- Day Ten & Eleven
- It's time to explore Etosha National Park! The next two days will be spent exploring this prime wilderness reserve, as well as Ongava Private Game Reserve situated on the edge of the park. You will be spoilt with magnificent wildlife sightings, including the famous Big 5.

Andersson's Camp

Located in the Ongava Game Reserve, the big game viewing at Andersson's Camp is spectacular throughout the year. Tents are constructed from a mix of stone cladding, canvas and wood with small veranda's and en-suite bathrooms. A renovated farmstead forms the nucleus of the lodge and guests can enjoy fine meals and great views of the scenic landscape. Andersson's close proximity to the Etosha National Park make it the ideal jumping off point for game drives in this abundant region.

- Day Twelve
- We bid farewell to Ongava and head to back to Windhoek via Okahandja. You will have the opportunity to visit the Woodcarvers Market for some last-minute souvenir shopping before your journey ends on arrival in Windhoek.
